Online Discussion Develop Millennial Generation Entrepreneurial Soul

The Public Administration Study Program of the Faculty of Social and Political Sciences, Medan Area University, held an online discussion with the theme "Millennial Hits Become an Entrepreneur? No need to worry".

The event which was opened by the head of the Public Administration Study Program Nina Angelia, S. Sos, M.Si presented young resource persons Marlina Deliana, S.AB, M.AB and guided by Juli Krisna Wati Waruwu.

Marliana said that entrepreneurs are people who make the process of creating an item that can take the opportunity and dare to take risks to create something very innovative by utilizing existing technology.

To be an entrepreneur, you must have the key to courage and to establish your heart.

Being a businessman is indeed not easy, it takes courage because there are certainly many challenges that must be faced.

Every entrepreneur must go through a phase of ups and downs, but if we have confidence and keep trying, surely someday will get success.

Nina Angelina hopes that by holding this discussion students will be able to develop their entrepreneurial talents and also additional information about the world of entrepreneurs.
